I hereby certify that I have written the following

with the title

in the course or subject (for B.A.-/M.A.-/Doctoral theses)

on my own and only with the aids mentioned in the seminar paper / thesis.

I have clearly marked quotations as well as the use of external sources, texts and aids according to the rules of scientific practice. The same applies to the use of my own work that has already been published, is being prepared for publication or was submitted as part of an examination (e.g. seminar paper, thesis). I am aware that I may not pass off other people's texts and text passages (as well as drawings, sketches, graphical representations, etc.) as my own and that a violation of the basic rules of academic work outlined here is considered an attempt to deceive and defraud, which will result in appropriate consequences. These consist of the assessment of the examination performance as "failed" as well as further measures, if necessary.

Furthermore, I declare my willingness to make my work available to the university in electronic form for the purpose of plagiarism checks (e.g. for random checks) in addition to the printed version upon request, and I grant the university the use of my text for this purpose.
